Topic of discussion

How to get children excited for other outdoor activities?

One of the most fundamental activities during one's childhood is the idea of going out to play and to engage in different kinds of sports i.e. outdoor activities.

This is exactly what the previous generation had thrived on. But, the same cannot be said about the current generation who have now started to put their interest in electronic gadgets.

So, with the concern of parents principal had decided for a trip (adventurous) to Nainital, which will be conducted in month of march 20
